He stated that she is in possession of the premises since 14th July, 2001.

2. The Tahsildar Shaikpet Mandal has got enquired the application Vide his letter dated 03.11.2009, he has reported that as per the photograph filed in the regularization application, the applicant is claiming the Government vacant land on ground with a fictitious Sy. No.129/98, which is a non-existing survey Number in revenue records. The Tahsildar has further reported that the land for which regularization application filed with a fictitious Sy. No. 129/98 on ground falls in T.S. No.4, Block ` B `, Ward No.10 correlated to Sy. No.403P of Shaikpet Village which is Government land vacant on ground.

3. The Tahsildar has further reported that the said land is covered by LGC No.166/96 filed by Soma Sekhar Rao and others against Government which is dismissed and they filed W.P. No.21856/2001, which is remanded back to the L.G (P) Court. Further another LGC No. 129/99 filed by Noori Savithri, the said LGC is allowed against which W.P. No.16561/2007 filed by Government is pending. The applicant is not having a valid document reflecting the ground position, claiming with fictitious and non-existing Sy. No. 129/98. The land in question covered by multiple litigations and also not having the possession over the said land. The Tahsildar Shaikpet finally proposed for rejection.

4. The District Collector in his letter dated 18.02.2010 addressed to C.C.L.A. while reiterate the above report of the Tahsildar has reported that the above land was inspected by the District Level Committee and the application was placed before the District Level Committee meeting held on 15.02.2010. After discussion the District Level Committee has proposed for rejection of the application for regularization on the ground that no such survey number is existing in Shaikpet Village, land in question is vacant on ground and covered by multiple litigations and to forward the application to the C.C.L.A. Hyderabad for placing before the State Level Committee and forwarded the same to the C.C.L.A.
